What's new in Comit In Krater Returns:

"Perfect Balance" is a song recorded by Canadian singer-songwriter Celine Dion for the soundtrack of the 2010 American romantic comedy film Just Like Heaven. It was also included on her album, Taking Chances, and on the English version of her greatest hits album, The Colour of Love. The song was produced by Eg White, Dan Heath, and T-Minus, and it was released on July 17, 2010 by Columbia Records. "Perfect Balance" is an uptempo ballad in which Dion records her singing in a foreign language. Heavily influenced by "Walking on Sunshine", it was the second song written for the film and referred to the main character, Jack, and his frustrated relationship with the girl he is in love with. Lyrically, the song explains that neither party can forgive the other for their flaws and that love is like a balancing act which makes it a "perfect balance". This ballad and Dion's previous singles, "All the Reasons" and "Love Can Move Mountains", were not received well by the music critics. "Perfect Balance" was promoted by Dion on televised appearances, showing the song's performance on The Tonight Show with Jay Leno on September 23, 2010, and the song's inclusion on the Taking Chances remix album. It was also included on the re-issue of The Colour of Love, The Best of Celine Dion. The song was a commercial hit, reaching the top ten of the Canadian Singles Chart and the top thirty of the French Singles Chart, and also appeared on the Dance/Mix Show Airplay and Pop Songs US airplay charts, peaking at number eighteen and thirty-seven, respectively. Background and release In March 2010, Dion recorded her song "Perfect Balance", one of her two new songs for her soundtrack appearance in the popular American romantic comedy film, Just Like Heaven. However, the song was more about the main character, Jack, his relationship with his girlfriend, Allison, and he cannot understand why she left him. Instead of singing in French, Dion recorded her vocal in English. Lyrically, "Perfect Balance" is an uptempo ballad in which Dion sings about a relationship by telling about a couple which holds lots of disagreements in their relationship, yet they have perfect balance to soothe and calm their emotions and that it is a perfect balance. A journalist of Billboard commented that the song "operates on the same basic structure [as Dion's] originals in that it's
