DEPARTMENT OF CHILDREN AND FAMILIES, Appellee. No. 2D09-4900. District Court of Appeal of Florida, Second District. April 16, 2010. Katherine Haime of Law Offices of Katherine Haime, P.A., North Palm Beach, for Appellant. Bill McCollum, Attorney General, Tallahassee, and Katherine Coombs Cline, Assistant Attorney General, Tampa, for Appellee. DAVIS, Judge. C.E.H. (the father) appeals the order terminating his parental rights pursuant to section 39.806(1)(f),

Florida Statutes (2008). Because the trial court did not make sufficient findings of fact and conclusions of law and because the record does not support the trial court's determination that the parents' efforts were futile, we reverse the order of termination. The Department of Children and Families (the Department) filed a petition for termination of the father's parental rights as to his two children. The petition alleged that the children were dependent, that termination of parental rights was in the children's best interests, and that the parents had abandoned or failed to maintain significant and meaningful contact with the children for a period of six months. *725 Before trial, the trial court orally determined that the children were dependent. The father did not object, and the trial court ultimately found that the father was an incarcerated person and therefore "does not have the opportunity to visit the children and meet their needs." After trial, the trial court entered a written order stating that the children were dependent, that termination was in the children's best interest, and that the parents had abandoned or failed to maintain
